You and your child are seeking services with Ruth Levisohn and Associates LLC.. Ruth Levisohn is a speech and language pathologist who has specialized in speech-language and language based learning problems, including dyslexia. She has served on the board of the Colorado Dyslexia Association and is a member of the American Speech-Language and Hearing Association, the Learning Disabilities Association, and the International Dyslexia Association. She has extensive training in the area of speech and language and has been trained in techniques recommended in research for children with dyslexia. Her staff includes speech and language pathologists as well as educational specialists.

Ruth Levisohn is a sole practitioner who shares office space at the Neuro-Developmental Center (NDC). NDC is a group of five independent practitioners who each have their own independent businesses. NDC exists only as an office sharing arrangement that has been created for the convenience of clients who wish to seek diverse services in one location. NDC is not a group practice or a partnership. The practitioners do not supervise each other and have no responsibility for each other's practices or for each other's employees, renters or for any other professional who rents space.. Each person operates separately, legally and for tax purposes, without direction from any other person and subject to the ethical standards of his or her respective profession. The NDC office sharing arrangement includes Dr. Nancy Gary, Psy.D., Kari Shanks Hall, M.A., OTR, Dr. Robin McEvoy, PHD. and Ruth Levisohn, M.A. SPL.CCC.

In addition, please recognize that all involved have separate businesses and have different policies and insurance billing practices. Please be sure to check policy forms for billing information for each individual provider. Payment for evaluations is due at the time of service and charges will be discussed with you before your appointment. You will be provided with a payment contract if you decide to receive therapy in this office from Ruth Levisohn and Associates and it will be reviewed with you.

We are not responsible for filing or collecting your insurance. Payment for evaluations is due at the time of service.

I have read and understand the above information and have received a HIPPA privacy notice and understand that I am responsible for the costs of any services provided.
